Wanted to give you [REDACTED] so you have it if you need.

I'll give him this number: [REDACTED] for you. Let me know of course if that not correct?

(b)(3)

Also, if you could give me the titles of those attending that would be great.

Thank you for all your help!

Please extend our sincere thanks to the man as well -- folks here were extremely appreciative of his time and willingness to listen to their concerns.

Hello Chris,

Heard you guys had a lovely (and almost described as fun) meeting today.

The man wanted to thank everyone for their hospitality and insight.

He had a couple questions:

1. Were any of the stars on the wall for Tyrone and Doherty?
2. Did Argo shoot in the front of your building? Curious.

Thank you again and no doubt "this is the beginning of a beautiful friendship."

All our best,

Elyse (& Michael)

Dear all,

Thanks everyone for all your time. I will follow through in implementing all of your changes. I want you to feel proud when you see this movie. I know to some in that room it was a very emotional day and a quite personal story.

I would like you guys to vet the last page of the script (enclosed). Also being twice in that great building, I was drawn to the Memorial Wall both times. On Friday, I realized the last two stars were for Tyrone and Glen.

I would like to end the film with a wide shot of the wall, including the flags on either side, and then cut on a close up of the last two stars, and fade out.

It would be a privilege if you would allow me and one cameraperson, with a camera no bigger than a Hasselblad, to shoot that. No lighting necessary; I could film it in 15 minutes. It would give the movie a poignant end. I can get the Pentagon to vouch for me regarding the utmost professionalism when we shoot government assets.

Thanks so much for the consideration,

Michael Bay

Elyse –

Hope you had a good rest of the week.

Dean and I were wondering if we could jump on the phone later this afternoon.

You around, possibly around 400 EST/100 PST?
